

Download it from here (if you are online) or copy it from the CD and save it to your desktop. If you're using IE7 you may get prompted to allow the download, please do so.

- Double-click mbam-setup.exe icon:  and when the download dialog box appears, please tick the 'Launch Malwarebytes' Anti-Malware when download completes' as displayed:

Launch "Malwarebytes' Anti-Malware" when download completes

- Select your language when this option is displayed.
- Follow default installation instructions
- Decide if you would like a 'Start Menu' folder created when this option is displayed
- Choose your options of preference on the 'Select Additional Tasks' screen
- Review your choices at the 'Ready To Install' screen
- At the end, be sure a checkmark is placed next to 'Update Malwarebytes' Anti-Malware' and

Update Malwarebytes' Anti-Malware

'Launch Malwarebytes' Anti-Malware' as displayed here:  Launch Malwarebytes' Anti-Malware

- Then click the OK button
- Please read the information box when it appears and click the Finish button
- Please allow access via your firewall if an alert is presented to you
- If an update is found, it will download and install the latest version.
- Once the program has loaded, select 'Perform a quick scan'.
- Then click button Scan
- When the scan is complete, you will be presented with a message as such, click the OK button then click the Show Results button
- Be sure that each item has its box ticked as displayed here:  Trojan.FakeAlert and click Remove Selected.
- When completed, a log will open in Notepad. Please save it to your desktop for easy access. Copy the contents of the file and paste it back into your thread for review. The log is also default saved to the following location: C:\Documents and Settings\Username\Application Data\Malwarebytes\Malwarebytes' Anti-Malware\Logs\log-date.txt